Help and Service Information

If you have questions about your new IBM ThinkPad 570 Direct Dock Adapter or require technical assistance, visit the IBM Personal Computing Support Web site at http://www.pc.ibm.com/support. You can also get help and information through the IBM PC HelpCenter in your geography (please check your 570 User's Guide for phone numbers and operating times). Response time might vary depending on the number and nature of the calls received.

Marketing, installation and configuration support though the HelpCenter will be withdrawn or made available for a fee at IBM's discretion, 90 days after the option has been withdrawn from marketing. Additional support offerings, including step-by-step installation assistance, are available for a fee.

During the warranty period, assistance for replacement or exchange of defective components is available.

Step 1. Problem Solving

You might be able to solve the problem yourself. Before calling the HelpCenter, please prepare for the call by following these steps:

1. If you are having installation or configuration problems, refer to the detailed sections on installation found in this manual.

2. Visit the Personal Computing Support Web site specific to the model of option you have purchased. Updated installation instructions, hints and tips, or updated system-specific notes are often published in this section. You might find that later device drivers are available that will improve the performance and compatibility of your ThinkPad 570 Direct Dock Adapter.
Also visit the support Web page for the IBM ThinkPad 570. These pages might also contain useful hints and tips related to the installation of the ThinkPad 570 Direct Dock Adapter and might refer to BIOS or device-driver updates required for your ThinkPad 570.

3. Uninstall then reinstall the ThinkPad 570 Direct Dock Adapter. Be sure to check that the position and orientation of connectors match the instructions in this manual.

Preparing for the Call

To assist the technical support representative, have available as much of the following information as possible:

- Computer manufacturer and model: IBM ThinkPad 570
- Option name: IBM ThinkPad 570 Direct Dock Adapter
- Proof of Purchase
- Exact wording of the error message (if any)
- Description of the problem
- Hardware and software configuration information for your system

If possible, be at your computer. Your technical support representative might want to walk you through the problem during the call.
